New fee for international connections in Lima (LIM)

Hello ,

We want to let you know that, following a decision made by the concessionaire of Jorge Chávez International Airport (Lima Airport Partners - LAP), a new charge called the Unified Airport Use Fee (TUUA) for transfers will take effect starting December 7, 2025. The amount will be USD 11.86 per passenger.

This fee applies to passengers connecting between international flights under the same reservation.

Please note that this measure is entirely managed by LAP. LATAM will not collect this fee through any of our sales or service channels. Passengers must make the payment directly to LAP, either at airport kiosks or through the payment method provided by LAP.

At LATAM, we understand that this change may affect your passengers' total travel cost and could lead to additional wait times during their connection. Even so, we trust that the authorities involved will continue reviewing this measure to ensure a better experience for travelers.

We regret any inconvenience that this fee – set by the airport concessionaire – may cause, whether in the final price paid by the passenger or in their comfort during the connection. If LAP announces any changes or updates, we will let you know right away.

Thank you for your understanding and continued partnership,

LATAM Airlines Team

WELCOMING NEW HEIGHTS

It's being surprised by an entirely new way to fly.

We are excited to share that we're renewing the experience of our Premium Business cabins with a visual concept inspired by the colors, landscapes, and cultures of South America—along with an elevated onboard service.

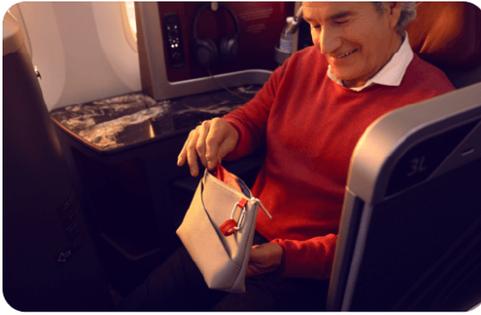

Starting December 1, your clients will enjoy:

Redesigned cabins featuring new materials, textures, and a warm, elegant aesthetic.

An enhanced onboard service with more personalized attention, three-course menus, a curated cocktail selection, and an elevated coffee offering.

Exclusive amenity kits created with Costa Brazil products, a brand inspired by the Amazon's natural resources that blends conscious luxury with sustainability.

This new Premium Business experience redefines Latin American hospitality and celebrates the authenticity, elegance, and diversity of the region—bringing even more value to your clients' travels.

Learn more about this new level of comfort and service.
