

American Airlines enhances the nation's premier network with new routes from Chicago and Los Angeles

American Airlines is turning the heat up this winter with new routes for customers to see the world. Travelers are already starting to lock in their plans for summer, and the airline is responding to customer enthusiasm for travel with new routes from Chicago (ORD) and Los Angeles (LAX), building on an existing commitment to offer customers more nationwide travel options than any other airline. Read more »