

Passenger guidelines - Updated

Dear Partner,

In light of the recent developments, we would like to share an update on the measures in place to provide additional flexibility and support for your clients.

Please find below the latest guidelines applicable during this period.

Minimum Connecting Time (MCT) for transiting customers in Doha for travel up to 28 March 2026 is 75 minutes

Complimentary Stopover for the Purpose of Connection (STPC) for travel up to 28 March 2026, the following applies:

- If your clients have a transit time of 8 to 24 hours they are eligible for a complimentary STPC.
- For travel more than 72 hours away, STPC requests for your clients should be submitted via the Trade Portal.
- For travel within the next 72 hours, your clients can approach the STPC Desk at Transfer upon arrival in Doha to receive their complimentary accommodation.

- For travel beyond 28 March 2026, standard STPC eligibility conditions apply.

Journey With Confidence (JWC)

Should your clients travel plans be disrupted, flight changes may be processed in line with our latest Journey With Confidence guidelines. All applicable JWC protections remain in place, including free reissues, refund flexibility, and no-show waivers. This applies to tickets issued by 28 March 2026 for travel between 28 February and 28 March 2026.

Your patience and understanding mean a great deal to us, and we are truly grateful for your continued support at this challenging time.

Thank you for your ongoing partnership.

Kind regards,

Qatar Airways
