Journey to the heart of poetic China

Dear Valued Customer,

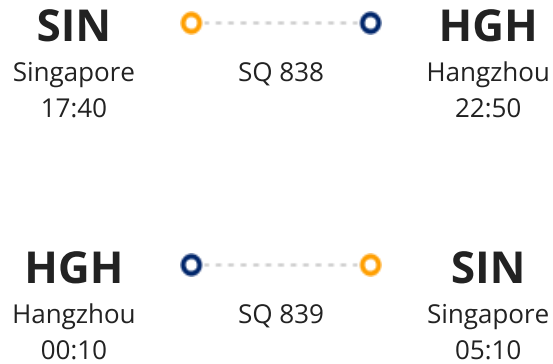

We are delighted to announce that your connections to China are expanding.

Starting June 2026, Singapore Airlines will commence daily non-stop flights to Hangzhou (HGH), the captivating capital of Zhejiang province.

Once described by Marco Polo as "the finest and most splendid city in the world," Hangzhou is a destination of fascinating contrasts. From the timeless tranquility of West Lake to the pulsating energy of a modern tech hub, this new route offers you a convenient gateway to one of China's most dynamic cities.

Flights are now available for booking.

All timings in local time. Flight schedule may be subject to changes.

Discover a city of timeless contrasts

From the misty landscapes of the past to a city shaped by modern innovation, experience the different sides of Hangzhou:

- West Lake and Longjing: Immerse yourself in a landscape that unfolds like a classical painting. Wander the promenades of the UNESCO-listed West Lake, or glide across its mirror-like surface on a traditional wooden boat. A short drive away, the hills of Longjing offer a glimpse into the region's long-standing tea culture, where its well-known green tea is grown and produced.
- Song Dynasty Heritage: Step back into the golden age of the Southern Song dynasty. Explore the legacy of the Silk Road at the China National Silk Museum, or savour culinary history at the 178-year-old Lou Wai Lou, where regional classics like Dongpo pork define the city's gastronomic identity.
- Qianjiang New City: See a more contemporary side of Hangzhou. The district features a modern skyline, with regular light displays at the International Conference Centre. Nearby, the Hubin Yintai In77 area offers a mix of retail and dining spaces along the lakeside.

Plan your journey to Hangzhou today.

Yours sincerely,
Singapore Airlines
