THE ONBOARD EXPERIENCE

Four chefs. Four seasons. Culinary artistry in rhythm with time.

Our menus rotate with the seasons. Throughout the year, four exceptional chefs - each with stars to their name - take turns crafting them to ensure you eat exceptionally well on board:

- David Toutain in spring
- Frédéric Duca in summer
- Franco Sampogna in autumn
- Nolwenn Corre in winter

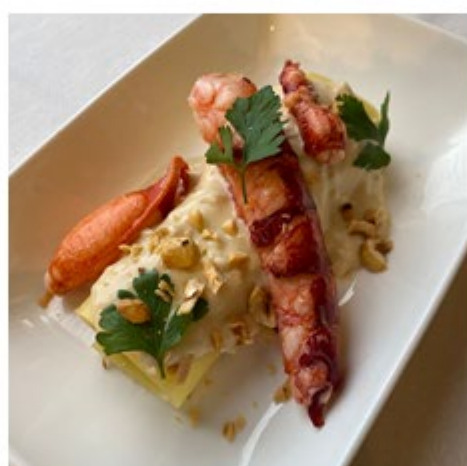

Designed to surprise and delight, every menu is built around seasonality and creativity with meticulous attention paid to flavors, textures and balance. It's the kind of food that holds its own anywhere, and adds something genuinely special to your La Compagnie experience.

A taste of what's on board:

David Toutain

Salmon gravlax with citrus zest and baby spinach

Nolwenn Corre

Lobster with celeriac purée, toasted hazelnuts and truffle

Franco Sampogna

Slow-cooked beef chuck with fragrant satay

Nice to meet your appetite!

Flying from Nice between April and September, chef Frédéric Duca has created a special gourmet appetizer. And in June, Gaël and Mickaël Tourteaux take over with a full menu drenched with fresh, unmistakably Mediterranean flavors.

THE WINE LIST IS NO AFTERTHOUGHT.

The gourmand food is only half of it. Wine experts Michel Bettane and Thierry Desseauve pair each dish with bottles worth talking about: Châteauneuf-du-Pape, Château Beaugard, Château La Croix de Carbonnieux. It's the kind of wine list that makes you slow down, savor your meal and make the most of every course.
