Dear Partner,

Qatar Airways announces resumption of flight operations between Doha and key destinations across the Middle East, reinstating daily services to United Arab Emirates, and Syria.

Starting 23 April 2026, Qatar Airways will resume daily flights to Dubai (DXB), and Sharjah (SHJ), with a daily service to Damascus (DAM) commencing on 1 May 2026.

This milestone is part of a phased restoration of Qatar Airways' global network, building on the airline's mid-April announcement confirming the expansion of its flight schedule from 16 June 2026 to more than 150 destinations across six continents.

Please advise your clients to regularly check its official website or app, and ensure their contact details are correct, and updated.

If your clients have a confirmed booking with a travel date between 28 February and 15 September 2026, they are eligible for:

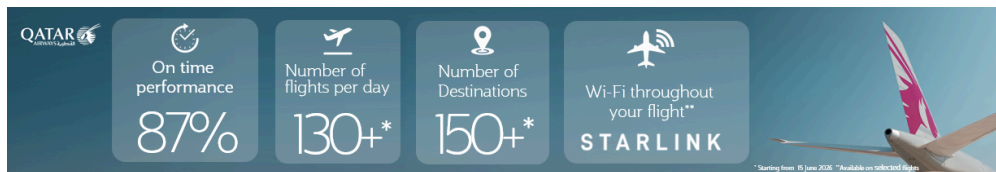

- Complimentary date changes to a new travel date up to 31 October 2026 when rebooking on flights operated by Qatar Airways, subject to availability and fare seasonality.
 - If their flight is impacted, they remain eligible for additional fee-free changes until 31 October 2026.
 - Refund of the unused ticket value. Please note that refunds may take up to 28 working days to be processed.

Please note: Flight schedules are subject to change or cancellation due to operational, regulatory, safety, or other circumstances beyond our control.

Thank you for your ongoing partnership.

Kind regards,

Qatar Airways

We keep updating our passenger guidelines, agent rebooking decision flow, and FAQs on a dedicated page on the Trade Portal to help support your teams during this period.
