

Why family group travel?

The world's a big place, and it's human nature to get out there and explore it. But when there's a plethora of different languages to learn, borders to cross and cultures to negotiate, you can spend a lot of energy on simply getting from A to B. Small group family adventure travel allows you to maximise your precious time together. Instead of worrying about logistics, you can focus all your energy on having the family experience of a lifetime.

Shared family experiences

Our family adventures are not about kids clubs and separate activities. Our trips encourage the whole family to get involved and share in the experience together. From riding camels through the desert and sea kayaking over a sunken city to meeting Africa's quirky wildlife and getting to know a family in Cuba, our trips introduce your family to new experiences that will create lasting memories to be shared around the dinner table for years to come.

Hassle-free family adventures

We've put years of research into our itineraries, activities and accommodation. So why spend hours agonising over every detail of your trip when you can leave it to someone who lives and breathes your style of travel? Our trips are specially designed to make sure they run at a family friendly pace and keep travelling time to a minimum. We visit key sites at the best time of day and ensure meal times are relevant to the group dynamic. Every trip is run in a child-centric way to boost their involvement and interest while providing an immersive cultural experience.

Ready-made friends

We all know how much energy is needed to keep up with our kids and their constant need for entertainment. But on a family adventure, ready-made friends are aplenty as all the kids naturally band together. We strive to match the kid's ages on each of our trips and our local leaders are a massive hit with children, teaching them local games and enthraling them with tales of adventure and history. You can choose to join in on the fun or happily watch them in their games of discovery.

Trip Styles

Every one of our trips has a particular style. It's a way to help you pick the adventure that suits you best. Just the essentials, a bunch of inclusions or a little of both? The choice is yours.
