1. Introduction

Simple Markets LLC provides educational services, courses, programs, community access, and training resources related to trading and financial literacy. These Terms and Conditions apply to all current and future products and services offered by Simple Markets LLC, whether purchased individually, accessed through a membership, or delivered through a structured program. Participation in any program is strictly educational, does not constitute financial, investment, or legal advice, and does not guarantee results. By accessing or purchasing any of our services, you agree to these Terms. If you do not agree, you must stop using our services.

2. Acceptance of Terms

Your use of our website and services constitutes acceptance of these Terms. If you do not agree, you are prohibited from accessing our services. Continued use indicates that you acknowledge and accept any updates or changes we may implement to these Terms.

3. Eligibility

Our services and products are available to individuals who are 18 years of age or older. However, we understand that people under the age of 18 may also access our courses and materials. By purchasing or using our services, users confirm that they have the legal capacity to enter into contracts, or they have obtained parental or guardian consent to do so. Simple Markets LLC assumes no responsibility for verifying the legal age of users, and by accessing our platform, users confirm compliance with applicable local laws.

4. Services Provided

Simple Markets LLC provides educational content, digital courses, webinars, community access, group learning environments, and structured training programs. Some services may include accountability components, progress tracking, or performance-based milestones.

Certain programs may be subject to additional program-specific terms or participation agreements. Where applicable, those terms will apply in addition to these Terms.

4A. Program-Specific Terms

From time to time, Simple Markets LLC may offer specialized training programs or structured learning pathways (the “Programs”). Programs may include unique eligibility requirements, participation expectations, or program-specific benefits. Certain Programs, including the Zero to Funded Trading Program, are governed by a separate Program Participation Agreement. Enrollment in a Program requires acceptance of that agreement. In the event of a conflict between these Terms and a Program Participation Agreement, the Program Participation Agreement will control for matters related to that Program. Marketing claims, including any “funded or your money back” statements, are conditional, and eligibility for any funding or support is fully subject to the Program Participation Agreement and Company discretion. Participants acknowledge that marketing language does not create additional legal obligations beyond the Agreement.

5. User Responsibilities

Users must provide accurate information when registering for our services and comply with these Terms. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your account credentials and for all activities that occur under your account. Unauthorized use of our services is prohibited and may result in termination of access. Participants must submit any required program materials (journals, screenshots, trading records, or other documentation) through the official Company channels. The Company may verify, approve, or deny advancement and program remedies at its sole discretion, and eligibility for any benefits is contingent upon complete and accurate submissions.

6. No Financial Advice

All content and materials provided by Simple Markets LLC are for educational purposes only. We do not provide personalized financial, investment, or legal advice. Users should consult with licensed professionals for advice tailored to their individual needs.

7. Payment Terms

Payment for our services is due at the time of purchase. Prices are subject to change without notice. By purchasing our services, you agree to the specified terms of payment. Failure to complete payment may result in restricted access to our services. All program payments, whether one-time or in installments, are binding. Participants cannot cancel remaining installments after enrollment, and enrollment constitutes a full payment commitment.

8. No Refund Policy

All sales of courses, memberships, programs, and digital products are final and non-refundable unless otherwise stated in writing for a specific product or Program. By purchasing any service, you agree to this policy. Any remedies or benefits associated with a Program are defined only in the applicable Program Participation Agreement. Any remedies, benefits, or conditional offers described in marketing materials, including “funded or your money back,” are fully controlled by the Program Participation Agreement. Participants may not initiate chargebacks, payment reversals, or disputes to bypass program terms or conditional obligations.
