Dimensions of a Great Team: A Tool for Reflection

Dimension	Indicators	Yes/No
Product: Something of quality gets done that is valuable, useful, and appreciated.	Was our product well received?
	Did our clients (students, teachers, parents, staff) think that our product was high quality?
	Did what we do make a difference to our clients?
	Do I feel proud of the work we did together?
Process: The group's collaboration skills increase as a result of working together.	Did our ways of working together improve over time?
	Did our ability to communicate with each other, manage unproductive conflict, and have healthy conflict increase?
	If I was to continue working with this team, do I feel confident that our work products would continue to improve because we've figured out how to best work together?
	If the team has disbanded: If this team were to reconvene, would I want to rejoin it?
Learning: The team experience is a learning experience that increases the skills and knowledge of individual team members.	Did I learn in this team?
	Did being a part of this team help me improve my skills in my primary area of practice? (Teaching, coaching, leading, etc.)
	Did I feel I could take risks in my learning in this team?
	Did I trust the other people in this team most of the time?
	Did I feel like I belonged to a community?
