Dive into summer
with camps that invite creativity and build confidence. At Kathy's Music, your child will explore music, art, and theatre through thoughtfully crafted experiences that inspire imagination and nurture a true love of the arts—all in a joyful, collaborative environment where every child belongs.

Step into a creative community where ideas are welcomed, voices are valued, and growth happens naturally. Through immersive, extended sessions, campers don't just "try" the arts—they dive deep into singing, creating, performing, and problem-solving. They'll build persistence, leadership, and confidence—while having an unforgettable summer.
