- When a new adoption reward threshold is reached, the reward increases.
- Adoption rewards are not cumulative.
- When the next funding threshold is reached, Adoption Partners will be paid the difference between the larger reward and the previous threshold reward payment. Once an Adoption Partner reaches a new reward threshold, rewards are paid out around the 20th of the following month.
- The maximum adoption reward an organization can receive in the U.S. is $250,000.
